DesCours Uncovers another Set of Unique + Hidden Sites

DesCours Reveals Installation Sites to Explore

New Orleans, La. (Dec. 3-11, 2011) DesCours reveals nine installation sites located throughout downtown New Orleans and the French Quarter that the public will have the opportunity to explore during the 5th annual presentation of this free, public architecture event that invites the public to explore avant-garde architecture installations in “hidden” locations, taking attendees on a sensory, voyeuristic experience that both contracts and compliments New Orleans’ world-renowned architecture.

This year’s installations include:

About AIA New Orleans:

Founded in 1911, AIA New Orleans is a non-profit whose mission is to represent, educate and serve the architecture profession and entire community as concerns the built environment. AIA New Orleans is a component of the American Institute of Architects (AIA), which serves over 80,000 professional architects. Serving over 500 local professional architects and associate members, the chapter hosts more than 75 events annually for its members and the public. Most recently, AIA New Orleans opened the 'AIA New Orleans Center for Design' which serves its members and the public by offering architecture and design education opportunities in the forms of lectures, a study center, special events, and more. AIA New Orleans Center for Design is the only dedicated architecture and design exhibition space in the state of Louisiana.
